NewFields

POSITION TITLE: Staff Engineer II

POSITION LOCATION: Reno, NV

POSITION DESCRIPTION:
NewFields is seeking a Civil or Mining Engineer to join its’ team in Sparks or Elko, NV to contribute in the design of major project elements, field construction inspection, geo-technical testing and drilling.
The Staff Engineer position requires problem-solving and analytical skills, sound judgment, and the desire to work in a project based team environment. The Staff Engineer position requires superior written and oral communication skills, the ability to interface professionally with personnel and clients, and the willingness to work in a highly collaborative environment.
Duties include but are not limited to:
• Assist in the design of mine infrastructure.
• Use Autodesk AutoCAD and Civil 3D.
• Perform hydrological and geotechnical analysis.
• Inspect and test earthworks, geomembranes, concrete and asphalt.
• Perform geotechnical and field investigations including drilling, test pitting and site reconnaissance.
• Prepare accurate and professional technical reports and presentations.
• Successful participation of projects resulting in client satisfaction and the on-time completion of quality technical products.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:
• Minimum BS in Civil, Geological or Mining Engineering
• Minimum of 3-5 years of experience
• Perform geotechnical and field investigations including drilling, test pitting and site reconnaissance.
• Prepare accurate and professional technical reports and presentations.
• Successful participation of projects resulting in client satisfaction and the on-time completion of quality technical products.
• Position may require sitting for long periods of time and extended hours working on a computer. Field assignments are located in a variety of climactic conditions and may require standing, squatting, bending and lifting up to 30 pounds, over prolonged periods of time.

HOW TO APPLY:
Interested applicants should send their resume to HRDirector@newfields.com.